Wednesday, April 23. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 29.

Milan, April 16.

TO Day Prince Eugene of Savoy made a solemn Entry into this City, and has taken Possession of this State, having receiv'd an Oath of Fidelity of all the Tribunals in the Name of King Charles III. He gave Liberty to 260 Prisoners, caus'd Money to be thrown among the People, Te Deum to be sung, and all our Artillery to be fir'd. The 9th the French Troops that came out of Mantua and Cremona, began their March through the Territories of Parma and Piacenza, in Order to arrive at Suza by the 29th: They have committed great Disorders in several Places through which they have pass'd. General Schlick is gone from hence for Turin. They write from Genoa, that the German Troops are retir'd from the Frontiers of that Republick, since 12500 Pistoles have been remitted to Prince Eugene on the Account of Contributions. 'Tis talk'd some Regiments will be sent to Tuscany, to oblige the grand Duke to pay the Contributions demanded of him.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 29.

Turin, April 6. The French keep a great Number of Men continually at Work upon Intrenchments and other Fortifications about Pignerol and Suza, to hinder our breaking into Dauphine. All the French and Spanish Officers that pass this Way to retire to France, make great Complaints of their Want of Pay. The French Troops which are coming for Suza under the Command of the Count de Medavi, are expected the 16th at Tortona, where they will halt a few Days before they come over the Tanaro. Our Duke has forbid the taking any French Deserters into his Service. The raising of 8 new Battallions in this Country is carried on with great Success and Expedition.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated April 28.

Turin, April 9. The 7th Instant about 100 Carts came hither, loaded with Cannon Balls, which the French left behind them in the Castle of Asti. Order is given for establishing an Hospital at Coni for the Service of the Allies. This Morning all the Mules in and about this City were taken up, to carry a great Quantity of Ammunition to Coni and Fort Edmont. 'Tis rumour'd, that the City of Novara, and the Novarese, in which are the Towns of Mortara and Vigevano, will be made over to his Royal Highness. The Enemy have undermin'd the Fort of Suza, that they may blow it up if they are oblig'd to quit it.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated April 29.

Turin, April 13. The Collonel of the Regiment of Grisons that came out of Final, disbanded his Regiment as soon as he entred the State of Milan, and is come hither. The Garrison of Final has pass'd through this Country, to the Number of 1100 Men, but left many in their March by Desertion: They arriv'd Yesterday at Suza. The Governour of the Citadel of Mantua is gone through this City for France, having with him above 100 Officers.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 29.

Suza, April 12. The Marquis de la Florida, late Governour of the Castle of Milan, set out from hence Yesterday for Paris. Our Troops are cantoning about Oulz, and Men are kept at work Day and Night in fortifying the Passages of the Mountains hereabouts. The Marshal de Thesse, attended by several Ingenieurs, is gone to view the Mountain of St. Bernard and all the Potts of the Valley of Barcelonetta; and is expected back here by the 16th. 400000 Livres are brought hither for paying our Troops that are retiring out of Italy, and will arrive here in about a Fortnight.

Breslau, April 16. 8000 Swedes are arriv'd near Golbergh in Silesia, and their Officers have view'd the River Oder from this Place to Glogau. 'Tis given out, that King Stanislaus with another Detachment of 10000 Men will joyn them the Beginning of next Month, to march together into Poland. We have Orders from the Court of Vienna, to furnish the Swedes with all they shall desire, on their paying for it.

Leipsich, April 20. Yesterday a great Council of War was held in the King of Sweden's Head Quarters at Alt-Ramstadt, at which King Stanislaus assist'd; and Orders having since been given to the Officers of the Artillery, to prepare for a March, 'tis believ'd the Swedes design, tho' there is yet but little Grass come up for the Horse, to take the Field shortly, which we extremely long for. The Elector Palatine, has by his Envoy, by the Advice of the Emperor, acknowledg'd Stanislaus for King of Poland.

From the Harlem Courant, dated April 30.

Dantzick, April 20. A Collonel and other Officers, with 1200 Men of the Garrison of this City, are march'd out into our Warders or Territory. They have some Cannon with them; and the Dykes being cut great Tracts of Land are laid under Water; so that the Muscovite General Rheen (who advanc'd near this Place the 9th Instant, and made several Demands which our Magistrates would not comply with, but resolv'd to stand on their Defence,) will find it very difficult to advance far into our Warders.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 29.

Hambourg, April 22. The Dantzickers continuing firm in the Party of King Stanislaus, have oblig'd the Muscovites to retire out of their Territory. The Ravages committed by the Muscovites, on the Lands of those whom they suspect to be well-affect'd to King Stanislaus, are beyond Example.
